Celebrate Law Day 2013!

March 25, 2013

Dear Teachers,

Enclosed for your use are flyers advertising the State Library of Arizona's 2013 Law Day Art event, which is open to students in Arizona schools, Grades K-12. Also enclosed are the registration guidelines for each of the grade level categories.

In 1958, President Dwight D. Eisenhower designated May 1st as Law Day, which is meant to celebrate and strengthen the American heritage of liberty, justice, and equality under the law. The art event is intended to help students and the public understand how the law protects our American freedoms. The State Library of Arizona will display selected student art entries in the State Capitol during the first week of May, 2013.

The 2013 Law Day theme is "Realizing the Dream: Equality for All," which celebrates the 50th anniversary of Martin Luther King Jr.'s "I Have a Dream" speech and the 150th anniversary of the Emancipation Proclamation. This theme gives students the opportunity to learn more about equality and the legal system and to creatively express what equality means to them. For more information about Law Day, visit www.lawday.org.

Thank you for your help in making this information available to your students. If you have any questions about the Law Day Art Event, please contact me.

Sincerely,

Tony Bucci
